thank you cruise 11/5

On Saturday, November 5th the National Park Service thanked the Volunteers for the entire cadre of parks in the Boston Area including: Friends of the Boston Harbor Islands, Friends of the USS Cassin Young, Bunker Hill Monument, Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston Harbor Islands Information Kiosk, African American Meeting House, Freedom Trail, & Fanueil Hall. About 125 volunteers were treated to a cruise on the Boston Harbor Cruises ship Majesty. The cruise went close to Boston Light between Georges Island and Lovells Island and included speeches from Park Officials, and several of the Volunteer Groups. A lunch was also provided as well as gift bags. The weather was perfect and the views were beautiful. Thank you to the NPS and all the Volunteer groups who make our city wonderful!
